III. Booth Allocation Principles

1. Priority will be given to vendors with a larger number of booth registrations who have completed the registration procedures and made payment (cheque due dates will be used to determine priority).
 2. Multiple vendors are not allowed to combine registrations for booth selection.
 3. Vendors who do not participate in the vendor coordination meeting will have their booths selected by the organizers without objection.
 4. If a vendor withdraws from participation after booth allocation, the paid booth fee will be used for the exhibition's expenses and will not be refunded.
- Please feel free to contact the VASSCAA-12 Secretariat for further details or clarification.

I. The selection order is based on the sponsorship level from highest to lowest, as follows: Diamond Sponsor, Platinum Sponsor, Gold Sponsor, Silver Sponsor, Bronze Sponsor, and finally, General Exhibitors and Sponsors.

II. If within the same sponsorship level, the selection order is determined by the following conditions:

A. Total sponsorship amount, with higher amounts given priority.

B. For the same amount, the earlier payment date takes precedence.

III. If a company registers after the booth selection meeting has concluded, they may select a booth upon completing payment.

The organizer reserves the right to adjust booth locations or sizes.
